

District Nursing

Caring for body, mind and spirit.

District Nursing not only focuses on your physical care, but cares for you as a whole person, taking in to account your needs as a member of a family and a community. Our service cares for your social, emotional and spiritual needs, including the support of carers and family.

We help you achieve the best possible quality of life, regardless of disease or disability.

District Nursing can support you to:

- Have YOUR say about your health.
- Better manage your own health.
- Feel acknowledged and supported.
- Reduce your visits to the doctor and/or hospital.
- Prevent further illness and injury.
- Manage your pain.
- Take your medicines safely at home.
- Decrease bladder infections from your catheter.
- Speed up your wound healing.

- Receive care to die peacefully at home with love, respect and dignity.
